

EVERYTHING WILL BE ALL RIGHT
by G. A. Kowatch

Verse 1

Do not worry; do not cry
Never let your spirits die
Keep your chin up to the skies
Trusting everything will be all right

Chorus

You will always be
Where you are meant to be
Learn from every situation
Stay on path to its fruition
Keep the faith; don't fall apart
Let your love comfort your heart
Everything will be all right
Everything will be all right in the end

Verse 2

Little angel, hear me now
You will get through this somehow
Let your face glow with a smile
Knowing everything will be all right

Chorus (2x)

You will always be
Where you are meant to be
Learn from every situation
Stay on path to its fruition
Keep the faith; don't fall apart
Let your love comfort your heart
Everything will be all right

Everything will be all right in the end.
Everything will be all right in the end.
